

The Shield of Faith

The Defensive Armor · The Armor of God

The Roman scutum was a large, door-shaped shield covered with leather that could be soaked in water to extinguish flaming arrows. Faith serves as the believer's shield, deflecting Satan's fiery darts—his temptations, accusations, doubts, fears, and lies. Active trust in God's promises, character, and power quenches every attack. This faith looks to Christ, rests on Scripture, and refuses to yield to circumstances or feelings. 'Above all' suggests the shield's supreme importance in spiritual combat.
