

1 Chronicles 15:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

Analysis

And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it—After the Uzzah disaster (ch. 13), David learned proper procedure. The phrase asher hekin lo ('which he had prepared for it') indicates David built a proper dwelling. This second attempt features Levitical carriers (v.15) instead of a Philistine-style cart.

The assembly of kol-yisrael ('all Israel') emphasizes national unity in worship. Chronicles repeatedly stresses this theme for post-exilic readers rebuilding temple worship. Right worship unites God's people; improper worship (ch. 13) brings death. David's preparation shows that honoring God's presence requires both heart devotion and procedural obedience.

Historical Context

This second ark procession (c. 1001 BC) occurred after David learned from Obed-edom's blessing (13:14) that proper handling brings prosperity, not judgment. The three-month interval allowed David to study Torah requirements and prepare according to Mosaic law.
