

1 Chronicles 22:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

Analysis

David's exhortation to Israel's leaders: 'Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.' The command 'set your heart and soul' (Hebrew: tenu levavkem v'nafshekem) requires total commitment - both intellect/will (heart) and being/desire (soul). Seeking God precedes building His house - internal devotion before external construction. This teaches that spiritual preparation must precede and undergird physical worship spaces. Christ builds His church from living stones whose hearts and souls seek God.

Historical Context

David's charge to leaders (c. 971 BCE) mobilized Israel's resources for Solomon's temple. His emphasis on heart-preparation acknowledged that without inward devotion, outward religious structures are empty shells - a lesson Israel would repeatedly forget.

Study Questions

1. Have you 'set your heart and soul' to seek God, or are you distracted by competing priorities?
2. What 'building' - spiritual formation, character development - needs to happen in your life before you can effectively serve God's purposes?
