

1 Samuel 12:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

Analysis

For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

Here Samuel reveals the foundation of hope: 'the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake.' Israel's security rests not on their faithfulness but on God's commitment to His own reputation (shem). The phrase 'because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people' grounds election in divine initiative and delight, not human merit. God's choice created obligations He freely assumed. This theology of grace anticipates Paul's argument in Romans 9-11 about God's irrevocable call.

Historical Context

Divine name theology appears throughout the Old Testament (Ezekiel 36:22-23). God acts for His name's sake - His reputation among the nations - which is tied to Israel's existence as His chosen people. This provides security even when Israel deserves abandonment.
