

1 Samuel 12:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

Analysis

And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

Samuel secures formal witness from 'the LORD' and 'his anointed' that no accusation stands against him. The invocation of divine witness transforms this from mere reputation-clearing to covenant testimony with eternal significance. By including 'his anointed' (Saul), Samuel acknowledges the legitimacy of the monarchy while establishing that prophetic accountability precedes and supersedes royal authority. The people's affirmation 'He is witness' seals this covenant testimony.

Historical Context

Covenant witnesses in the ancient Near East typically included divine beings and human representatives. By naming both Yahweh and the king as witnesses, Samuel establishes a pattern where prophets would hold kings accountable to divine standards - a relationship that would characterize Israel's monarchy.
