

1 Samuel 13:20

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

Analysis

But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

The practical result of Philistine iron monopoly forced 'all the Israelites' to go 'down to the Philistines' even for basic agricultural tools. This humiliating dependence for 'share, and coulter, and axe, and mattock' meant Israelites could not even maintain their farming equipment without Philistine permission. The descent 'down' to the Philistines symbolizes Israel's subordinate status. Economic dependence preceded military dominance; controlling basic necessities enables control of everything else.

Historical Context

Agricultural implements listed - plowshares, mattocks, axes, and sickles - were essential for food production. Without independent means of producing and maintaining these tools, Israel's economy was completely vulnerable. This economic stranglehold was more effective than military occupation.
