

1 Samuel 14:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

Analysis

And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

Saul's request for 'the ark of God' indicates desire for divine guidance through proper religious channels. Yet his consultation contrasts with Jonathan's active faith. The note that 'the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel' marks a change from when the Philistines captured it (chapters 4-6). Saul reaches for religious ritual while God works through individual faith. The ark represents God's presence, but presence without obedience proves futile.

Historical Context

After the ark's return from Philistia, it remained at Kiriath-jearim (7:1-2) rather than at Shiloh, which was apparently destroyed. Saul's summons of the ark indicates desire for tangible divine presence to guide military decisions. Some manuscripts read 'ephod' instead of 'ark,' referring to the priestly garment used for obtaining divine guidance.
