

1 Samuel 14:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

Analysis

Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

Those who had 'hid themselves in mount Ephraim' - the frightened Israelites of 13:6 who fled to caves and pits - now 'heard that the Philistines fled' and 'followed hard after them in the battle.' The Hebrew davaq ('followed hard' or 'clung') describes aggressive pursuit. Fear transforms to courage when God's power becomes evident. The same people who hid now pursue. Divine victory emboldens those who lacked faith for the initial fight.

Historical Context

Mount Ephraim's caves and forests provided hiding places for refugees during Philistine dominance. The emergence of these hidden Israelites swelled the pursuing force significantly. Their participation in pursuit, if not in initial combat, contributed to the totality of the Philistine defeat.

Study Questions

1. How does witnessing God's power transform fearful people into bold participants?
2. What responsibility do those who hid during the battle have in pursuit of the fleeing enemy?
