

1 Samuel 14:41

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

Analysis

Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

Saul's prayer for 'a perfect lot' (thummim, connected to the Urim and Thummim) requests divine identification of the guilty party. The lot eliminates the people and 'Saul and Jonathan were taken.' God's answer implicates the royal house. The very oracle Saul sought reveals his own son as the oath-breaker. Divine guidance, properly sought, often reveals uncomfortable truths. Saul receives accurate answer to his question but remains blind to the underlying issue - his rash oath.

Historical Context

The Urim and Thummim were priestly objects used for obtaining divine guidance. The mechanism apparently allowed three outcomes: Urim (no), Thummim (yes), or neither (no answer). Saul's request for 'perfect lot' sought clear divine communication.
