

1 Samuel 17:47

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will give you into our hands.

Analysis

And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will give you into our hands.

The declaration 'the battle is the LORD's' (ki YHWH hamilchamah) expresses the central theological truth of this narrative. God does not merely help in battle; the battle belongs to Him. 'Not with sword and spear' negates human military confidence while affirming divine sovereignty. This principle echoes throughout Scripture: 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD' (Zechariah 4:6).

Historical Context

Ancient near eastern royal inscriptions invariably credited military victories to national deities. Israel's distinctive contribution was absolute attribution of victory to Yahweh alone, with human warriors as mere instruments. David's statement represents this theology's clearest expression.
