

1 Samuel 18:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

Analysis

And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

Saul's fear of David arose precisely 'because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.' The Hebrew syntax emphasizes the contrast: divine presence with David, divine absence from Saul. Fear of those God empowers often indicates awareness of one's own spiritual poverty. Saul's condition had become tragically clear: unable to destroy David, unable to ignore his own rejection, unable to repent.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern kings typically claimed divine favor as legitimization of their rule. Saul's recognition of God's presence with David implicitly acknowledged his own loss of divine sanction. This awareness made David's success threatening rather than encouraging.
