

1 Samuel 18:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD'S battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

Analysis

And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD'S battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

Saul's offer of his daughter Merab concealed murderous intent: 'Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines.' The promise 'be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles' employed pious language for impious purposes. Saul would technically fulfill his promise from 17:25 while hoping David would die in combat. This manipulation represents using religious language to mask sinful agendas.

Historical Context

Royal marriages created political alliances and obligations. Saul's promise of his daughter to Goliath's slayer (17:25) created expectations he now manipulated. Sending David against Philistines provided honorable cover for his deadly hopes.
