

1 Samuel 19:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

Analysis

So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

David's flight to Samuel at Ramah returns him to his spiritual father for counsel and protection. 'Told him all that Saul had done' indicates need for godly counsel in crisis. Their retreat to Naioth ('dwellings' - possibly a prophetic community) placed David in a spiritual stronghold. When physical safety fails, spiritual refuge remains. Samuel's protection extended to sharing the danger.

Historical Context

Samuel's prophetic school at Ramah provided both spiritual guidance and physical safety among the prophetic community. Naioth may have been a settlement of prophets in Ramah's vicinity. Samuel's reputation and divine connection offered some protection from royal persecution.
