

1 Samuel 20:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

Analysis

The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

Jonathan's self-imprecation 'The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan' invokes curses upon himself if he fails David. His acknowledgment 'the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father' recognizes divine favor has transferred from Saul to David. Jonathan's extraordinary spiritual perception recognized God's work and submitted to it despite personal loss. Such gracious yielding to divine providence marks mature faith.

Historical Context

Self-imprecation formulas invited divine punishment for oath violation. Jonathan's recognition of God's presence with David echoed what Saul himself perceived (18:28). The heir acknowledging his father's replacement showed remarkable humility.
