

1 Samuel 23:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

Analysis

Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

David's inquiry demonstrates dependence on divine guidance. The Hebrew 'sha'al' (enquired/asked) indicates formal consultation, likely through Abiathar's ephod. David's question is specific and practical: should he engage the Philistines? God's response is equally direct—"go and smite" (Hebrew 'lekh vehikkita'). The added phrase 'and save Keilah' reveals God's compassion for the threatened town. This divine command to an outlaw fugitive bypasses the legitimate king entirely—God directs military operations through David while Saul pursues paranoid vendettas. The pattern of seeking God before acting would characterize David's best leadership throughout his life.

Historical Context

The phrase 'enquired of the LORD' typically involved the Urim and Thummim in the high priest's ephod. Abiathar's recent arrival with the ephod (22:20-23) provided David this means of divine consultation that Saul had lost through his faithlessness.
