

1 Samuel 28:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

Analysis

Saul's threefold inquiry reveals the complete shutdown of divine communication. 'Dreams, Urim, and prophets' represented the three recognized channels of divine revelation in Israel. Dreams communicated directly to individuals; the Urim (priestly divination through the breastplate) operated through official religious channels; prophets spoke God's word through inspired individuals. The emphatic negative 'lo 'anahu YHWH' (the LORD did not answer him) marks divine silence as judgment. God's refusal to communicate leaves Saul spiritually abandoned.

Historical Context

The Urim and Thummim were sacred lots carried in the high priest's breastplate for divine guidance. After the massacre at Nob, only Abiathar survived of the priests, and he had fled to David with the ephod. Saul may have lacked even the physical means for priestly inquiry.
