

1 Samuel 3:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

Analysis

The chapter concludes with emphasis on renewed revelation: 'the LORD appeared again in Shiloh.' The prophetic silence of verse 1 has ended. God 'revealed himself to Samuel...by the word of the LORD' - divine communication has resumed through a faithful channel. The location at Shiloh is significant: despite its coming destruction, God continues to reveal Himself there through Samuel. The corrupted sanctuary becomes the site of prophetic renewal. God works through broken institutions to raise up reforming voices.

Historical Context

Shiloh's continued function as revelation site despite its corruption shows God's patience with flawed institutions. Yet the emphasis on Samuel rather than the priesthood signals the coming shift in Israel's spiritual leadership from priests to prophets.
