

1 Samuel 30:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

Analysis

The Egyptian's report catalogues the Amalekite raid's extent: the Cherethites (Philistine mercenaries), Judah's territory, and Caleb's portion. The burning of Ziklag is mentioned specifically. This comprehensive raiding indicates a major Amalekite expedition, not a small band. The geographic scope shows they exploited the Philistine army's absence to raid widely. David now understands the full extent of the disaster and the enemy's direction of travel.

Historical Context

The Cherethites were associated with Philistine territory, possibly Cretan in origin. Caleb's inheritance in the Hebron region had been given at the conquest (Joshua 14). The raid's breadth indicates significant Amalekite strength.
