

1 Samuel 4:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

Analysis

Eli sits 'by the wayside watching,' heart trembling for the Ark. Despite his failures, Eli's concern for the Ark shows genuine devotion to God's honor. The narrator emphasizes this: 'his heart trembled for the ark of God.' When the messenger arrives and the city cries out, Eli hears but cannot see - his physical blindness now fully symbolic. The aged priest awaits news that will confirm both his worst fears and God's certain judgment.

Historical Context

Eli's position 'by the wayside' suggests he stationed himself where he could intercept news from the battle. His trembling heart indicates awareness that the Ark's removal from Shiloh violated proper procedure and risked divine displeasure.
