

1 Timothy 3:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

Analysis

Not a novice (μὴ νεόφυτον, mē neophyton)—literally 'not newly planted,' a recent convert. The danger: lest being lifted up with pride (τυφωθεὶς, typhōtheis)—'being puffed up with conceit,' from typhōō (to wrap in smoke, to cloud with pride). Rapid elevation to leadership can produce spiritual intoxication.

He fall into the condemnation of the devil—not Satan's condemnation of the proud elder, but the same judgment Satan himself received. The Greek τοῦ διαβόλου (tou diabolou) is a genitive—the elder would fall into the same condemnation that befell Lucifer through pride (Isaiah 14:12-15, Ezekiel 28:17).

Pride is the original sin, the root of Satan's fall. New believers need time for character formation before public leadership. Spiritual maturity, not mere knowledge or gifting, qualifies one for oversight.

Historical Context

The Ephesian church faced the constant influx of new converts from paganism. Some were educated, wealthy, or socially prominent—natural candidates for leadership in Greco-Roman culture. Paul insists Christian leadership requires proven character over time. The church is not a meritocracy but a family where maturity develops through testing and discipleship.

Study Questions

1. How does our culture's emphasis on youthful leadership conflict with Paul's 'not a novice' requirement?
2. What specific dangers does rapid elevation to ministry create in a person's spiritual life?
3. How long is enough time for a convert to mature before eldership consideration?
