

2 Chronicles 12:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

Analysis

The epitaph on Rehoboam: 'And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.' This diagnosis reveals the root of evil actions - unprepared hearts. The verb 'prepared' (hekin) suggests deliberate, intentional orientation toward God. Failing to prepare one's heart to seek the LORD results in evil, even without specific intention. This teaches that spiritual drift and neglect are themselves sinful, not merely neutral. The heart requires active preparation - through prayer, Scripture, worship - to maintain God-seeking orientation. Christ calls disciples to watch and pray (Matthew 26:41) to avoid temptation, echoing this need for prepared hearts.

Historical Context

Rehoboam's reign (c. 930-913 BCE) began with foolish decisions causing kingdom division, included periods of idolatry and Egyptian invasion, yet showed moments of repentance (12:6,12). His inconsistency stemmed from unprepared heart - sometimes seeking God, often neglecting Him.
