

2 Chronicles 15:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

Analysis

Azariah's prophetic word to King Asa 'The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you' establishes a crucial conditional principle. God's covenant presence ('the LORD is with you') depends on faithful response ('while ye be with him'). This isn't works-salvation but covenant stipulation - those who truly know God seek Him and experience His presence. Conversely, forsaking God results in divine abandonment. This sobering warning balances promises of God's faithfulness with calls to human responsibility. In Christ, believers have security because Christ never forsakes the Father, and we're united to Him.

Historical Context

Delivered during Asa's reforms (c. 895 BCE) after victory over Ethiopia, this prophecy encouraged continued faithfulness while warning against complacency. Asa's later failure to seek God (16:12) proved the warning's relevance.
