

2 Chronicles 20:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's.

Analysis

God's response through Jahaziel 'Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's' transforms crisis into trust. The command against fear and dismay acknowledges natural human response to overwhelming odds. The theological pivot - 'the battle is not yours, but God's' (not 'your battle' but 'God's battle') - relieves pressure while requiring faith. This principle appears throughout Scripture when God's people face impossible situations. It demonstrates that spiritual warfare and kingdom advancement come through divine power, not human effort. This points to Christ's victory where believers are spectators and beneficiaries rather than combatants.

Historical Context

Delivered before battle (c. 853 BCE), this prophetic word required faith to obey - marching to battle while trusting God to fight. The subsequent victory without Judah striking a blow (20:22-24) confirmed the word's truth and became a testimony to surrounding nations.
