

2 Chronicles 7:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

Analysis

The dramatic theophany 'when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house' validates both the temple and Solomon's reign through visible divine approval. Fire from heaven consuming sacrifice signifies God's acceptance (cf. Leviticus 9:24, 1 Kings 18:38). The consuming fire symbolizes God's holy wrath satisfied by substitutionary sacrifice - pointing to Christ bearing God's wrath on the cross. The glory filling the house demonstrates God's covenant presence. This dramatic moment cannot be repeated through human effort; it's pure divine initiative.

Historical Context

This spectacular manifestation (c. 960 BCE) marked the temple as God's chosen dwelling place. Subsequent worship would continue in this sanctified space, but this unique authentication established the temple's legitimacy for centuries.

Study Questions

---

1. How does fire consuming the sacrifice point to Christ's complete satisfaction of God's wrath toward sin?
2. What difference does it make that God's glory now dwells in believers individually and the church corporately, rather than a physical temple?
