

2 Corinthians 1:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

Analysis

But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay (πιστὸς δὲ ὁ θεός)—pistos ho theos (πιστὸς ὁ θεός, "God is faithful/true") is oath formula invoking divine character as guarantee. Paul swears by God's reliability to certify his own.

Aorist egeneto (ἐγένετο, "became/was") shows Paul's message has never been contradictory yes-and-no. Logic: because God is unchanging truth, those representing Him speak consistent truth. Paul's reliability flows from God's faithfulness.

Historical Context

Written around AD 55-56 from Macedonia after Paul's 'painful visit' to Corinth (2:1). The Corinthian church faced challenges to Paul's apostolic authority from 'super-apostles' (11:5) who valued eloquence over cruciform ministry. Paul writes to defend his ministry, explain his changed travel plans, and restore relationship with this fractious congregation.

Study Questions

1. Can I stake my word on 'as God is faithful'—does my reliability flow from His character?
2. How do I respond when people misinterpret changed circumstances as changed character?
3. What message must remain consistent regardless of pressure to compromise?
