

2 Corinthians 1:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Analysis

Grace be to you and peace (χάρις ὑμῖν καὶ εἰρήνη)—Paul's greeting merges Greek charis ("grace," unmerited favor) with Hebrew shalom ("peace," wholeness). In a letter addressing deep wounds, he invokes God's enabling power and reconciliation.

From God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ—the dual apo (ἀπό, "from") places Father and Son on equal footing as co-fountains of grace and peace, affirming Christ's deity.

Historical Context

Written around AD 55-56 from Macedonia after Paul's 'painful visit' to Corinth (2:1). The Corinthian church faced challenges to Paul's apostolic authority from 'super-apostles' (11:5) who valued eloquence over cruciform ministry. Paul writes to defend his ministry, explain his changed travel plans, and restore relationship with this fractious congregation.

Study Questions

1. Do I believe grace and peace come 'from God' alone, or seek them through human approval?
2. How would viewing relationships through 'grace and peace' transform difficult interactions?
3. What does receiving grace 'from the Lord Jesus Christ' mean when I feel neither gracious nor peaceful?
