

2 Corinthians 1:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

Analysis

Not for that we have dominion over your faith (Οὐχ ὅτι κυριεύομεν ὑμῶν)—kyrieuomen (κυριεύομεν, "we lord over/exercise dominion") negates hierarchical control. Paul refuses spiritual tyranny—he doesn't manipulate Corinthian consciences. Tēs pisteōs (τῆς πίστεως, "the faith") is each believer's personal trust in Christ, not subject to apostolic coercion.

But are helpers of your joy (συνεργοί ἐσμεν τῆς χαρᾶς)—synergoi (συνεργοί, "fellow workers/co-laborers") shifts from dominion to partnership. Paul's role: facilitate joy chara (χαρᾶς), not enforce compliance. For by faith ye stand—perfect hestēkate (ἐστήκατε, "you have stood and continue standing") shows settled stability. Their standing rests on faith, not apostolic authority.

Historical Context

Written around AD 55-56 from Macedonia after Paul's 'painful visit' to Corinth (2:1). The Corinthian church faced challenges to Paul's apostolic authority from 'super-apostles' (11:5) who valued eloquence over cruciform ministry. Paul writes to defend his ministry, explain his changed travel plans, and restore relationship with this fractious congregation.

Study Questions

1. Do I seek to 'lord over' others' faith through manipulation, or am I genuinely a 'helper of joy'?
2. How does recognizing people 'stand by faith' free me from unhealthy spiritual responsibility?
3. What leader models 'helper of your joy' rather than dominion—how can I imitate that?
