

2 Thessalonians 1:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

Analysis

So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure—Paul boasts (enkauchaometha, ἐγκαυχώμεθα) about them to other congregations. Their hypomonē (ὑπομονή, endurance/patience) and pistis (πίστις, faith) shine through all your persecutions (diōgmois, διωγμοῖς, active pursuit by enemies) and tribulations (thlipseis, θλίψεις, crushing pressures).

The present tense ye endure (anēchesthe, ἀνέχεσθε) indicates ongoing suffering, not past trials. Faith isn't theoretical belief but active trust in God amid real danger. Paul elevates their example to encourage other churches—suffering believers are the church's crown jewels, not its failures.

Historical Context

The Roman Empire tolerated many religions but demanded ultimate allegiance to Caesar. Christians' refusal to participate in emperor worship, civic festivals, and trade guild ceremonies marked them as subversive. Economic boycotts, social ostracism, and mob violence were common consequences.

Study Questions

1. How does your faith hold up under pressure compared to when circumstances are comfortable?
2. What would Paul boast about regarding your church if he visited today?
3. Are you willing to endure social and economic loss for Christ, or only mild inconvenience?
