

2 Thessalonians 3:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Analysis

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen—Paul's standard closing: The grace (hē charis, ἡ χάρις) of our Lord Jesus Christ (tou Kyriou hēmōn Iēsou Christou, τοῦ Κυρίου ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ) be with you all (meta pantōn hymas, μετὰ πάντων ὑμᾶς). Grace brackets the letter (1:2, 3:18)—unmerited favor is both greeting and benediction.

Amen (amēn, ἀμήν, 'so be it')—affirming prayer. Everything—perseverance through persecution, resisting deception, church discipline, productive labor—depends on grace. Christ's undeserved favor enables all Christian living. The letter began with grace, taught about grace's outworking, and concludes with grace's benediction. Grace is sufficient for every command.

Historical Context

Ancient letters typically ended with health wishes or generic blessings. Paul Christianizes the form, making grace-wish the closing. This became standard Christian epistolary form, copied by later church fathers. Grace replaced generic well-wishing with specific invocation of Christ's favor.

Study Questions

1. How specifically do you need Christ's grace to enable obedience to this letter's commands?
2. What does it mean for grace to 'be with you'—how do you experience Christ's enabling favor?
3. Why does Paul emphasize 'all'—what does this reveal about grace's availability?
