

Acts 10:40

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

Analysis

Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; The resurrection declaration presents Christianity's foundational claim—God vindicated crucified Jesus by raising Him from death, demonstrated through visible appearances.

Historical Context

Third day timing fulfills Jesus' predictions (Matthew 16:21) and scriptural patterns (Hosea 6:2). Shewed him openly means publicly visible, not private mystical experience. God raised indicates Father's vindication of Son. This proclamation around 40 CE to Gentile audience established resurrection as gospel's core—not optional doctrine but essential claim distinguishing Christianity from Judaism and paganism.

Study Questions

1. Why is third-day timing significant for resurrection theology?
2. What does public visibility of risen Christ demonstrate about resurrection's nature?
3. How does resurrection vindicate Jesus' claims and mission?
4. In what ways is resurrection essential rather than optional to Christian faith?
5. What distinguishes physical resurrection from spiritual immortality concepts?
