

Acts 10:44

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

Analysis

The Spirit's falling during Peter's sermon (before baptism or apostolic laying-on of hands) demonstrates God's sovereign freedom in giving His Spirit. This 'Gentile Pentecost' validated Cornelius' household as full participants in salvation without Jewish rituals first. The interruption of Peter's preaching shows divine initiative superseding human plans.

Historical Context

This pivotal event (AD 40-41) broke down the Jewish-Gentile barrier, proving salvation by grace through faith alone. The Spirit's visible manifestation convinced Jewish believers (Acts 10:45) that God accepted Gentiles directly, preparing the church for worldwide mission.

Study Questions

1. What does the Spirit's falling on Gentiles before baptism teach about salvation's basis?
2. How should this passage shape our understanding of who belongs in God's kingdom?
