

Acts 10:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

Analysis

The angel commanded sending for 'Simon, whose surname is Peter' - the gospel requires human messengers, not angelic preachers. Peter's location in Joppa 'with one Simon a tanner' indicated growing openness to ceremonially unclean associations. God prepared both evangelist and hearer.

Historical Context

Tanning was considered unclean due to contact with dead animals. Peter's lodging with a tanner suggested he was already moving beyond strict ceremonial scruples.

Study Questions

1. Why does God use human messengers rather than angelic preachers for the gospel?
2. What does Peter's location suggest about his spiritual preparation for this mission?
