

Acts 11:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

Analysis

The name 'Christians' (Greek 'Christianoi,' followers of Christ) first applied at Antioch captures believers' core identity in Christ. Whether a term of derision or neutral description, believers embraced it, accepting identification with their crucified Lord. This Gentile church's one-year teaching ministry under Barnabas and Saul established the pattern of sustained discipleship.

Historical Context

Antioch in Syria (not Antioch in Pisidia) became Christianity's first major Gentile center around AD 42-43. This cosmopolitan city provided ideal launching point for world mission. The disciples being 'called Christians' here first occurs in Gentile context.

Study Questions

1. What does the name 'Christian' signify about believers' primary identity and loyalty?
2. How important is sustained teaching ministry for establishing strong churches?
