

Acts 11:27

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

Analysis

Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem. The rapid communication about Antioch's Gentile Christianity shows early church's communication networks and concern for doctrinal unity.

Historical Context

Tidings (Greek: logos) means report or account. Church in Jerusalem maintained oversight of emerging Christianity. News of systematic Gentile evangelism in Antioch (around 41-42 CE) required response. Jerusalem church sent Barnabas (Acts 11:22) to investigate, demonstrating appropriate oversight without authoritarian control. This balance characterized early Christianity—local autonomy within broader apostolic unity.
