

Acts 12:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

Analysis

The church's response to Peter's imprisonment—'prayer was made without ceasing'—demonstrates corporate intercession as primary spiritual warfare. The Greek 'ektenos' (earnestly/without ceasing) indicates intense, persistent prayer. This contrasts human helplessness with divine power accessed through united prayer.

Historical Context

During Passover (AD 44), Herod Agrippa I imprisoned Peter intending post-festival execution after beheading James (Acts 12:2). The church's prayer meeting at Mary's house (Acts 12:12) continued while Peter slept chained between soldiers.

Study Questions

1. How does corporate prayer access divine power in seemingly impossible situations?

2. What role should sustained, united intercession play in facing opposition today?
