

Acts 14:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

Analysis

The shocking reversal - from attempted worship (verse 18) to stoning Paul - demonstrates crowd volatility and the opposition's influence. Jews from Antioch and Iconium traveled significant distances to oppose Paul, showing determined resistance to the gospel. Paul's survival after stoning (they 'supposed he had been dead') demonstrates either divine protection or remarkable resilience.

Historical Context

Stoning was the Jewish method of execution, indicating Jewish instigation even in this Gentile city (Lystra). That Paul survived and continued ministry shows extraordinary physical and spiritual resilience under divine protection.
