

Acts 15:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

Analysis

The apostles, elders, and whole church chose representatives to accompany Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. This demonstrates church government through leadership and congregational consent. Judas (Barsabas) and Silas, 'chief men among the brethren,' would confirm the council's decision. Their involvement ensured the letter's authenticity and authority.

Historical Context

This delegation method prevented forgery and confirmed official church positions. Silas (also called Silvanus) would later become Paul's missionary companion, showing how this council strengthened ministerial relationships.
