

Acts 15:37

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Analysis

Barnabas 'determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.' The word 'determined' (Greek 'bouleuō') indicates firm intention. Barnabas saw potential in Mark despite his earlier failure. This grace-oriented approach would ultimately be vindicated - Mark later became useful to Paul (2 Tim. 4:11).

Historical Context

John Mark had accompanied Paul and Barnabas on the first journey but abandoned them in Pamphylia (Acts 13:13). Barnabas, Mark's cousin (Col. 4:10), wanted to give him a second chance.
