

Acts 18:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

Analysis

---

'He went up, and saluted the church' in Jerusalem before going to Antioch. This visit maintained apostolic fellowship and accountability. 'He went down to Antioch' - his sending church base for reporting and refreshment.

Historical Context

---

This brief summary covers significant travel - Ephesus to Caesarea to Jerusalem to Antioch. The Jerusalem greeting and Antioch return completed Paul's second missionary journey.

Related Passages

---

John 15:13 — Greatest form of love

1 Corinthians 13:4 — Characteristics of love

Study Questions

---

1. Why was maintaining connection with Jerusalem and Antioch important for Paul?
2. What does this teach about missionary accountability to sending churches?

Interlinear Text

---

καὶ	κατελθὼν	εἰς	Καισάρειαν	ἀναβὰς	καὶ
And	when he had landed	at	Caesarea	and gone up	And
G2532	G2718	G1519	G2542	G305	G2532
ἀσπασάμενος	τὴν	ἐκκλησίαν	κατέβη	εἰς	Ἀντιόχειαν
saluted		the church	he went down	at	Antioch
G782	G3588	G1577	G2597	G1519	G490

Additional Cross-References

---

Acts 8:40 (Parallel theme): But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

---