

Acts 19:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

Analysis

'The evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?' This demonic testimony is startling - demons recognize genuine spiritual authority while rejecting pretenders. The demon 'knew' (Greek 'ginōskō') Jesus intimately and 'understood' (Greek 'epistamai') Paul's authority, but dismissed these charlatans. Spiritual authority comes from union with Christ, not techniques or formulas.

Historical Context

Demons' testimony to Jesus appears throughout the Gospels (Mark 1:24, 5:7). Their recognition of Paul shows apostolic authority was spiritually discernible. The exorcists' failure exposed their fraudulence.

Study Questions

1. What does demonic recognition of Jesus teach about spiritual reality?
2. How is genuine spiritual authority distinguished from religious pretense?

3. Why do demons sometimes speak theological truth?
