

Acts 19:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

Analysis

'The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.' This violent response demonstrated the danger of spiritual warfare without spiritual authority. Their humiliation - fleeing naked and wounded - publicly exposed their powerlessness. Attempting spiritual ministry without Christ's authority invites disaster.

Historical Context

This incident became widely known in Ephesus (Acts 19:17), serving as warning against magical manipulation and encouraging genuine faith in Christ. The physical beating illustrated spiritual defeat.
