

Acts 19:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

Analysis

Not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia—Paul's ministry had provincial impact, not merely local. The Greek πείθω (peithō, 'persuaded') indicates rational argumentation, not coercion. Paul turned away much people (μετέστησεν, metestēsen, 'caused to change sides'), using language of conversion and defection from false religion.

They be no gods, which are made with hands (χειροποίητοι, cheiropoiētoi)—This echoes prophetic mockery of idols (Psalm 115:4-8, Isaiah 44:9-20). Paul's preaching exposed the obvious absurdity: creators cannot be inferior to their creations. The gospel's intellectual coherence, combined with Spirit-power, systematically dismantled Artemis worship.

Historical Context

The seven churches of Asia (Revelation 2-3) emerged from Paul's Ephesian ministry, which reached the entire province through the hall of Tyrannus (Acts 19:9-10). Ephesus served as Paul's base for regional evangelism, training workers who planted churches throughout Asia Minor.
