

Acts 19:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

Analysis

But when they knew that he was a Jew—Recognition of Alexander's Jewishness immediately terminated his defense. The crowd responded all with one voice (φωνὴ ἐγένετο μία, phōnē egeneto mia) about the space of two hours cried out, chanting μεγάλη ἡ Ἄρτεμις Ἐφεσίων (megalē hē Artemis Ephesiōn) continuously. Two hours of monotonous chanting reveals religious mania replacing rational discourse.

This sustained chanting functioned like modern protest chants—drowning out opposition through sheer volume and repetition. The anti-Jewish prejudice exposed here shows that mob violence targets minorities indiscriminately. Jews couldn't separate themselves from Christians because pagans viewed both as threats to Artemis worship. The two-hour duration suggests demonic energy sustaining religious fervor—human voices grow hoarse, but spiritual opposition perseveres.

Historical Context

Two-hour ritualistic chanting was common in pagan worship, inducing altered states of consciousness and group cohesion. This wasn't spontaneous emotion but cultic practice turned weaponized. The Ephesian riot foreshadowed later pagan mob violence against Christians throughout the Roman Empire, often featuring similar sustained chanting and religious fervor masking economic and social fears.
