

Acts 19:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Analysis

When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus— The immediate response demonstrates genuine conversion's eagerness to align with revealed truth. Baptism in the name of the Lord Jesus (εἰς τὸ ὄνομα τοῦ Κυρίου Ἰησοῦ) signifies baptism into Christ's authority and ownership, confessing Him as Lord and Messiah. The Greek preposition εἰς (into) suggests entering into relationship with Christ, not merely ritual compliance. This re-baptism is unique in Acts, addressing the specific situation of those baptized before Pentecost. It establishes that Christian baptism is Trinitarian in essence (Matthew 28:19) and Christ-focused in confession.

Historical Context

This occurred around AD 53-54 in Ephesus. The practice of re-baptizing those who had only John's baptism appears unique to this transitional situation. Later Christian baptism was always 'in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,' though Acts frequently emphasizes the name of Jesus.

Study Questions

1. What does baptism 'into the name' of Jesus reveal about Christian identity and belonging?
2. How should churches respond to those with incomplete understanding of baptism or the gospel?
