

Acts 2:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

Analysis

Peter's authoritative address marks his transformation from denier to bold proclaimer. Standing 'with the eleven' emphasizes apostolic unity and shared authority. His appeal to 'all ye that dwell at Jerusalem' shows the gospel's immediate Jewish focus before expanding to Gentiles, following Jesus' pattern (Acts 1:8).

Historical Context

Peter addresses the confused crowd at 9 AM (the third hour, v. 15) in Jerusalem's temple precincts. As leader of the apostolic band, Peter naturally speaks first, fulfilling Jesus' commission to strengthen the brothers (Luke 22:32).
