

Acts 2:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

Analysis

Joel's 'wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath' encompass both cosmic upheaval and earthly testimony to God's judgment and salvation. The imagery of 'blood, fire, and vapor of smoke' evokes both Sinai's theophany and eschatological judgment. Peter applies this to the 'last days' inaugurated at Pentecost, suggesting the entire church age exists under these signs' shadow, awaiting final fulfillment at Christ's return.

Historical Context

Similar apocalyptic imagery appears in Exodus 19 (Sinai), Ezekiel 38-39 (Gog and Magog), and Revelation 6-8 (seal judgments). These cosmic disturbances signal transition between ages - from law to grace at Pentecost, from grace to glory at the Parousia. Ancient Near Eastern peoples understood celestial phenomena as divine communication.
