

Acts 20:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

These going before tarried for us at Troas.

Analysis

---

'These going before tarried for us at Troas' - the 'us' indicates Luke's presence. Division of the group shows organizational planning. Troas became the rendezvous point for the traveling party.

Historical Context

---

Luke's 'we' sections indicate his personal presence with Paul. Troas was a strategic port city on the Aegean coast.

Related Passages

---

Romans 1:17 — The righteous shall live by faith

Hebrews 11:1 — Definition of faith

Study Questions

---

1. What does Luke's presence teach about eyewitness sources in Acts?
2. How did coordination enable the mission despite complex logistics?

Interlinear Text

---

οὗτοι προελθόντες ἔμενον ἡμᾶς ἐν Τρωάδι
These going before tarried for us at Troas
G3778 G4281 G3306 G2248 G1722 G5174

Additional Cross-References

---

Acts 16:8 (Parallel theme): And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

---

From KJV Study • kjvstudy.org