

Acts 20:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

Analysis

---

'There were many lights in the upper chamber' - detailed observation suggests Luke's presence. The lamps created heat and reduced oxygen, contributing to Eutychus's drowsiness. Luke's careful details establish historical reliability.

Historical Context

Upper rooms were common meeting spaces. The many oil lamps indicated a large gathering. This eyewitness detail confirms Luke's participation.

Study Questions

1. How do Luke's specific details support the historical reliability of Acts?
2. What does the large gathering suggest about the Troas church?
