

Acts 21:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

Analysis

Paul's willing participation in the purification ritual demonstrated his principle of becoming 'all things to all men' (1 Corinthians 9:22). His public temple presence with these men would testify that he 'walkest orderly, and keepest the law' in matters of cultural practice. This showed Paul's consistency - liberty for Gentiles didn't mean contempt for Jewish heritage.

Historical Context

The seven-day purification period followed Nazirite vow regulations. Paul's payment for the sacrifices would have been substantial, possibly using funds from the Gentile churches' collection, ironically using Gentile gifts to demonstrate Jewish piety.
