

Acts 24:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

Analysis

---

Tertullus's three accusations - pestilent fellow, mover of sedition, ringleader of Nazarenes - were calculated to alarm Roman authorities. Calling Christianity a 'sect' (Greek 'hairesis,' heresy) and Paul its ringleader painted him as politically dangerous. The charge of sedition 'among all the Jews throughout the world' was utterly false but strategically crafted to threaten Roman interests in maintaining peace.

Historical Context

Rome deeply feared popular movements that could threaten imperial stability. Tertullus's accusations deliberately conflated religious leadership with political sedition, knowing Rome would take such charges seriously.

Study Questions

1. How do you respond when your faith is deliberately mischaracterized as politically dangerous or socially harmful?
2. What does this teach about how gospel truth threatens both religious and political establishments?
